Q3: September 2023

A Note from the Executive Director

Fall is a sign that change is beautiful

As summer is coming to an end, our community will be shifting gears to get ready for the fall season. Our residents are looking forward to our fall décor including mums from local farms. Fall activities will include country rides to enjoy the fall foliage and trips to local farms for pies and cider.

National Assisted Living Week will be September 10th-16th. This year's theme is "Season of Reflection" and we will be celebrating all co-workers and have a week full of activities, food and giveaways. Please stop in anytime during this week and fill out a card to hang on our tree that reflects on a special memory you have had here at Providence Place.

Also, please don't forget to sign up at the reception desk for our Brunch which will be held on September 17th from 10:30-12:30. Please RSVP at the reception desk by September 13th. This month's theme will be Germany.

As always, thank you to all residents, families, friends and co-workers for your continued support. We value each and every one of you.

Sincerely,

Melissa Jacoby

Executive Director
