Providence Place SENIOR LIVING News

Q4: November 2023

A Note from the Executive Director

“Be kind, be thoughtful, be genuine,
but most of all - be thankful”

Crisp fall days are upon us. The residents are enjoying sitting on the porch, walking around our beautiful walking path and taking rides through the country to see the foliage. Community Life did a wonderful job decorating for fall, the building looks beautiful inside and out. Our Trunk-or-Treat was a big success and the residents enjoyed seeing all of the children in their costumes. Now that Halloween is over, we are shifting gears to Thanksgiving.

Our fall menu is in full-swing and the building is filled with amazing aromas throughout the day. If you are planning to come and have Thanksgiving meal with your loved one, please call the reception desk to RSVP by November 17th.

As you know I am always available for comments, questions, concerns. We have a Family Meeting scheduled for November 13th and all are welcome to attend. Meeting with Connections families will be held from 6pm-7pm in Connections dining room then meeting for Independent & Assisted living residents and families will be held from 7pm-8pm in the main dining room. There will be light refreshments and snacks.

We here at Providence Place are excited for all of our fall festivities so please make sure to check the Community Life calendar.

As always, thank you to all our staff, residents and families.
